

University of Mississippi eGrove

---

Correspondence: Anti-integration

James Meredith Collection

---

10-4-1962

Mrs. Doris Barton to "Sir" (4 October 1962)

Mrs. Doris Barton

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr\_anti

---

Recommended Citation

Barton, Mrs. Doris, "Mrs. Doris Barton to "Sir" (4 October 1962)" (1962). Correspondence: Anti-integration. 122.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr\_anti/122

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the James Meredith Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence: Anti-integration by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

590 Third Ave
Niagara Falls
Ontario
Canada

Oct 4/62

Dear Sir,

Being a mother of five sons, I know that a son when they are young do not stop to think like they should,
But Sir how happy are you now, look at all the trouble you have caused for your Self and all the other young People in the School, deep down in your heart I am sure you know it is not worth it, we all have to know our Place in this world, and your Place is going to School with your own Race, every one is dear to our Lord, but he has made us the colour we are for his own Reason, but we must know our Place, and we must know it is wrong to force our selves in the wrong Places, because Black and white do not mix if they do

It is a sin because it is not the way God meant it to be, Please go back to school with your own Race, it would be the greatest thing you could do, for your own happiness Please -

Sincerely,

Mrs Doris Barton

Copyrighted